

Food Rescue in Action Panel

Amy Schaefer
YWCA Quad Cities

Corie Gamble
PV School District

Taelor Denton
Churches United

Break & Vendor Networking

Community Panel

Ann McGlynn
Tapestry Farms

Laura Mahn
NEST Cafe

Food Scrap Container Winners

Thank you to everyone who donated to the Empowerment Center!

Food Rescue Recognition Program

- What is the Food Rescue Recognition Program?
- How do you become a Member of Food Rescue?

foodrescueqc.org/recognition-program/apply/

WE ARE A PROUD MEMBER OF

FOOD RESCUE
PARTNERSHIP

Members of Food Rescue donate their surplus food to local non-profit hunger-relief agencies, farmers for animal feed and/or compost.

VISIT FOODRESCUEQC.ORG FOR A FULL LIST OF MEMBERS OF FOOD RESCUE.

f @foodrescueqc

Feed People, Not Landfills!

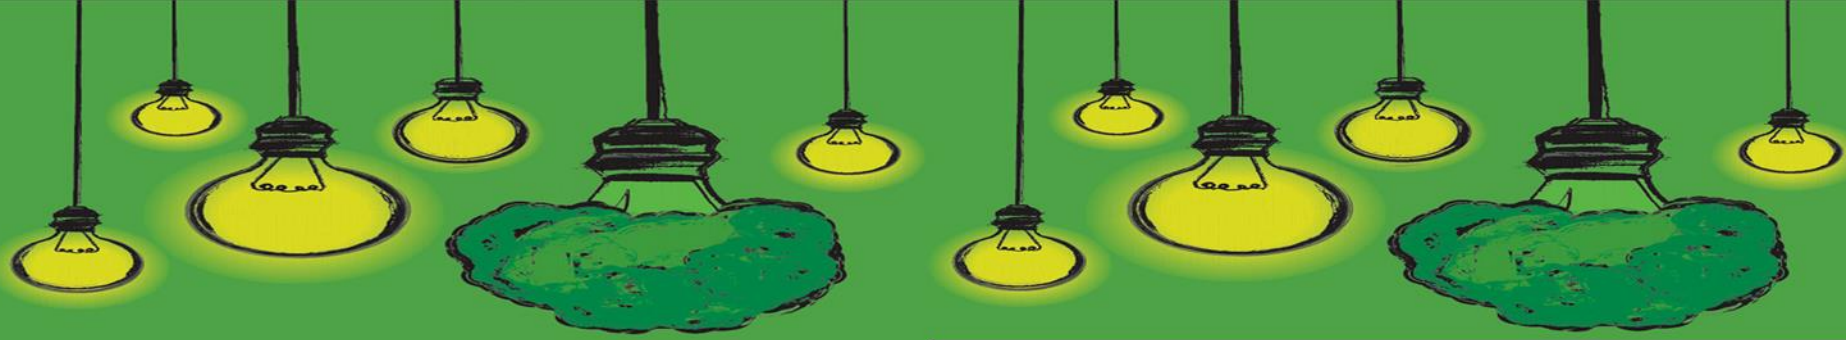

frp@foodrescueqc.org

Members of Food Rescue

- Asbury Methodist Church Garden Ministry
- Bettendorf Community School District
- Blckpearl Catering
- Churches United of the Quad City Area
- Crawford Brew Works
- Dairy Queen
- Davenport Community Schools
- Davenport Elk's Club
- Donuts & More
- Happy Joe's Pizza Grille
- Imperial Vending
- Jumer's Casino & Hotel
- Kwik Trip, Inc. / Kwik Star
- NEST Café
- Panera Bread of Iowa
- Pleasant Valley Community School District
- Popcorn Charlie and Company
- Tapestry Farms
- Target
- The River Center / The Adler Theatre
- Village Corner Deli
- Word of Life Food Pantry
- YWCA Quad Cities

Food Rescue Partnership
Food Rescue Recognition Program

Member of the Year

Recognizing a Member of Food Rescue organization for going above and beyond throughout 2026!

MEMBER OF THE YEAR

Tapestry Farms

Food Rescue Partnership
QUAD CITIZENS NOMINATED A

Food Rescue Warrior

Recognizing someone in the Quad Cities that goes above and beyond to ensure food is not waste but is rescued and kept as the amazing resource it is!

FOOD RESCUE WARRIOR

Christa Andersen

YWCA Quad Cities Tour

Thank you to YWCA Quad Cities for hosting!
If attendees are interested, please stay for a tour.